MELVIN I. AND MARILYN A. EISENBERG ENDOWMENT FUND
ISRAEL SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Date: 2009 – 2010 School Year
To: MIE Institute for Judaic Studies Students
From: Rabbi Mordechai Raizman

Scholarships are provided by the Eisenberg Family for students who are graduating from the MIE-Eisenberg Institute for Judaic Studies and who plan to continue their studies in Israel.

Melvin I. Eisenberg was a tireless worker for Jewish Education, a generous supporter of Israel and countless other Jewish causes. He was also a devoted husband, father, stepfather and grandfather. Mr. Eisenberg was President of the Associated Talmud Torahs and a long-time ATT Board Member. He was also very involved with the Ida Crown Jewish Academy, serving as President of the Academy Associates as well as the Board of Governors.

The MIE-Eisenberg Institute for Judaic studies is the ATT High School for public school students. It is a fitting tribute to Mel Eisenberg's memory and the school greatly enriches the Judaic aspects of the lives of its students.

Marilyn Allswang Eisenberg has been a member of the ATT Board of Directors for many years and continues to support Jewish Education in Chicago and Israel. Mrs. Eisenberg is also very involved with the Women's Division of the Jewish United Fund of Chicago and many other charitable organizations. She is on staff at Chai Lifeline, which does wonderful things for children with disabilities.
