

Mrs. Susie Rosen

Mrs. Susie Rosen, grew up in Cincinnati, Ohio. She attended Hanna Sacks Bais Yaakov and attended Machon Devorah Seminary in Jerusalem. She has been a Limudei Kodesh teacher at Arie Crown Hebrew Day School for the past 26 years, teaching both first and second grades. She feels that it is a privilege to be a part of the “Arie Crown Family” for so many years. The opportunity to collaborate with such a committed and talented group of teachers and exceptional administrators has had a major influence on her teaching style and experience.

As a Judaic Studies teacher in a primary grade, Mrs. Rosen’s first goal is to provide the foundational skills for Hebrew reading, the prerequisite for all future learning. She believes that it is just as important to give each child a love of Yiddishkeit, Torah and, most of all, the knowledge that Hashem loves them. Mrs. Rosen attempts to instill in the heart of each child a sense of belonging and connection to the Jewish people, thus enabling them to realize their unique potential. She is constantly changing and adapting her teaching methods to fit the needs of the students.

Mrs. Rosen feels it is a tremendous zechus to educate these precious neshamos and makes every effort to enable them to see success. Her love for each child and desire to reach each student is done with the hope that it will inspire them to live as Torah Jews with a love for learning and mitzvos.
