Melvin I. Eisenberg was a tireless worker for Jewish education, a generous supporter of Israel and countless other Jewish causes. He was also a devoted husband, father, stepfather and grandfather. Mr. Eisenberg was President of the Associated Talmud Torahs and a long-time ATT Board Member. He was also very involved with the Ida Crown Jewish Academy, serving as president of the Academy Associates as well as on the Board of Governors.

Marilyn Allswang Eisenberg was a true family person, especially taking delight in her many grandchildren. She was a vibrant part of our Jewish community. She was a member of the ATT Board of Directors for many years and active at Hillel Torah where she was PTA treasurer and president. In addition, she also was a board member of the Ark, the Dawn Schuman Institute and the Ida Crown Jewish Academy, and an involved member of the Women's Division of the Jewish United Fund of Chicago, Hadassah, Yeshiva Women and Amit.

The MIE-Eisenberg Institute for Judaic Studies is the ATT High School for public school students. It is a fitting tribute to Mel and Marilyn Eisenberg's memory as the school greatly enriches the Judaic aspects of the lives of its students.
